Then let us celebrate with a feast,
because this son
of mine was dead,
and had come to life again;
he was lost,
and has been found.

In Word & Deed

Has there ever been a time when we did not need forgiveness? Haven't we all gotten a little off course—with God, with our family, or with our friends—at one time or another? Isn't there always someone who we should forgive? Here are a few thoughts about forgiveness, inspired by the Prodigal Son and his brother.

* To forgive does not require that we forget. After all, if it were easy to forget, would we need to forgive?
* When you forgive, you free a person who is a prisoner of anger and hate. Then you realize that the person freed is you.
* Ordinary people have offered forgiveness in extraordinary circumstances. We can learn from their courage and example.
* Those who are the most difficult to forgive are often the ones who need it the most.
* Forgiveness brings peace, contentment, hope and calm.
* Be forgiving of others. They may be fighting a spiritual battle much larger than yours.
* If you forgive others, God will forgive you.
* If you knew the life of even your worst enemy, you would find sorrow, fear and suffering that would move you to forgive any and all hurts.
* Understanding opens the door to forgiveness.
* Ask for forgiveness as soon as you can. Waiting only makes the hurt grow stronger.
* Celebrate the healing and joy of those who are forgiven. One day, that party will be for you!

FAITH FACTS

The reading from the Book of Joshua

The Israelites wandered in the wilderness for forty years after escaping from Egypt. During that time they fed on the miraculous bread, manna. When they entered the promised land, they had no more need of manna, and it ceased. The 'parched grain' referred to in the reading was probably grains of threshed wheat, roasted over a fire on an iron pan, while being stirred constantly. In biblical times, parched wheat was a common food.
(Information on 'parched grain' taken from the International Standard Bible Encyclopedia.)

Did you ever think, while going through the Lenten season, Why the desert? Why must I go to the desert? Why did Jesus have to spend 40 days in the desert? What is so special about this desert? It's so dry, and there is nothing around and it's quiet. So once again, Why the desert?

Well, that's exactly why, there is nothing to distract us from listening to God. We don't actually have to go to the desert now adays, we just need to find a quiet place without distractions and to be in silence & to spend some quality time with God. The church is a perfect place for our desert time, especially at Adoration.

Here is a prayer I found from Henri Nouwen, "Dear God, speak gently in my silence. When the loud outer noises of my surroundings and the loud inner noises of my fears keep pulling me away from You, help me to trust You are still there even when I am unable to hear You."

We hope you are enjoying our delicious fish & chips dinners. Every Friday during Lent (except for Good Friday, so we do not interfere with Mass) at our trailer in the parking lot at St. Mark's in Sutton. We are open from 4 until 7 (or until we run out). All of our proceeds go back to our parishes and community. We thank you in advance for your support.

April 1st our Alfred Weldon Scholarship will be available for you to access on our Council site: koc12710.org, to download the application. The deadline will be May 30th. Recipients will be notified by June 7th. Good luck to all of our applicants.

May God's peace and blessings be with you all,
